

Have you seen this pest?

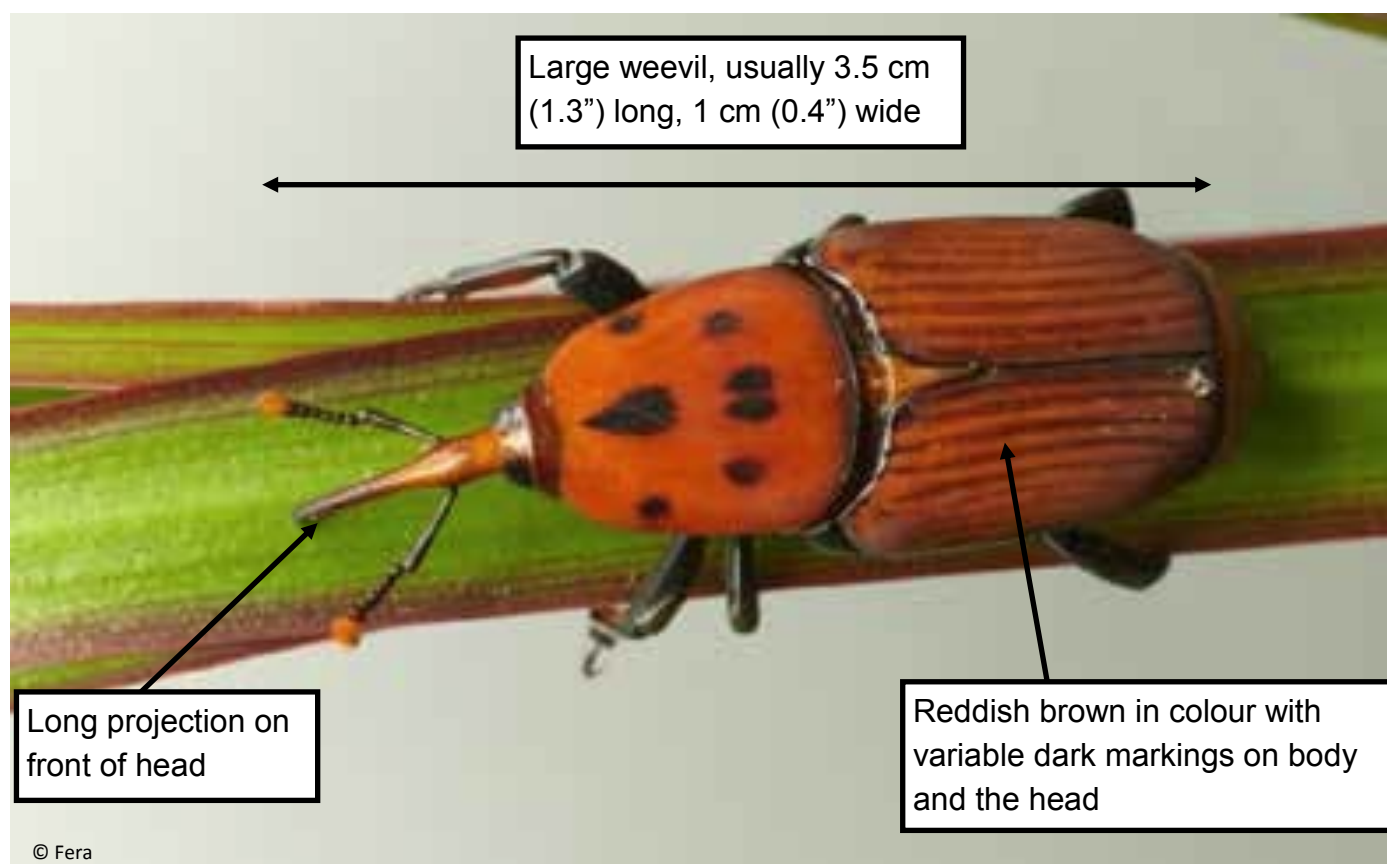

RED PALM WEEVIL

Rhynchophorus ferrugineus

What is it?

An invasive weevil from southern Asia and Melanesia. Red palm weevil has recently been introduced to the Caribbean and is a potentially serious threat to crop and ornamental palms. Suspected sightings should be reported immediately using the details provided at the bottom of this poster.

Where might I see it?

You may see dead or dying trees affected by this species.

Please report any sightings of this species by calling:

1664 491 2075