Have you seen this pest?

MEDITERRANEAN FRUIT FLY

Ceratitis capitata

---

What is it?

A fruit fly from sub-Saharan Africa. Mediterranean fruit fly is a serious pest of citrus and other fruits.

Suspected sightings should be reported immediately using the details provided at the bottom of this poster.

---

Where might I see it?

Fruit flies can be found as eggs or larvae in fruits or as adults caught in traps. Affected fruit may have puncture marks or globules of sugar on the skin.

---

Please report any sightings of this species by calling:

1664 491 2075

[insert website address?]