

Have you seen this pest?

BOA CONSTRICTOR

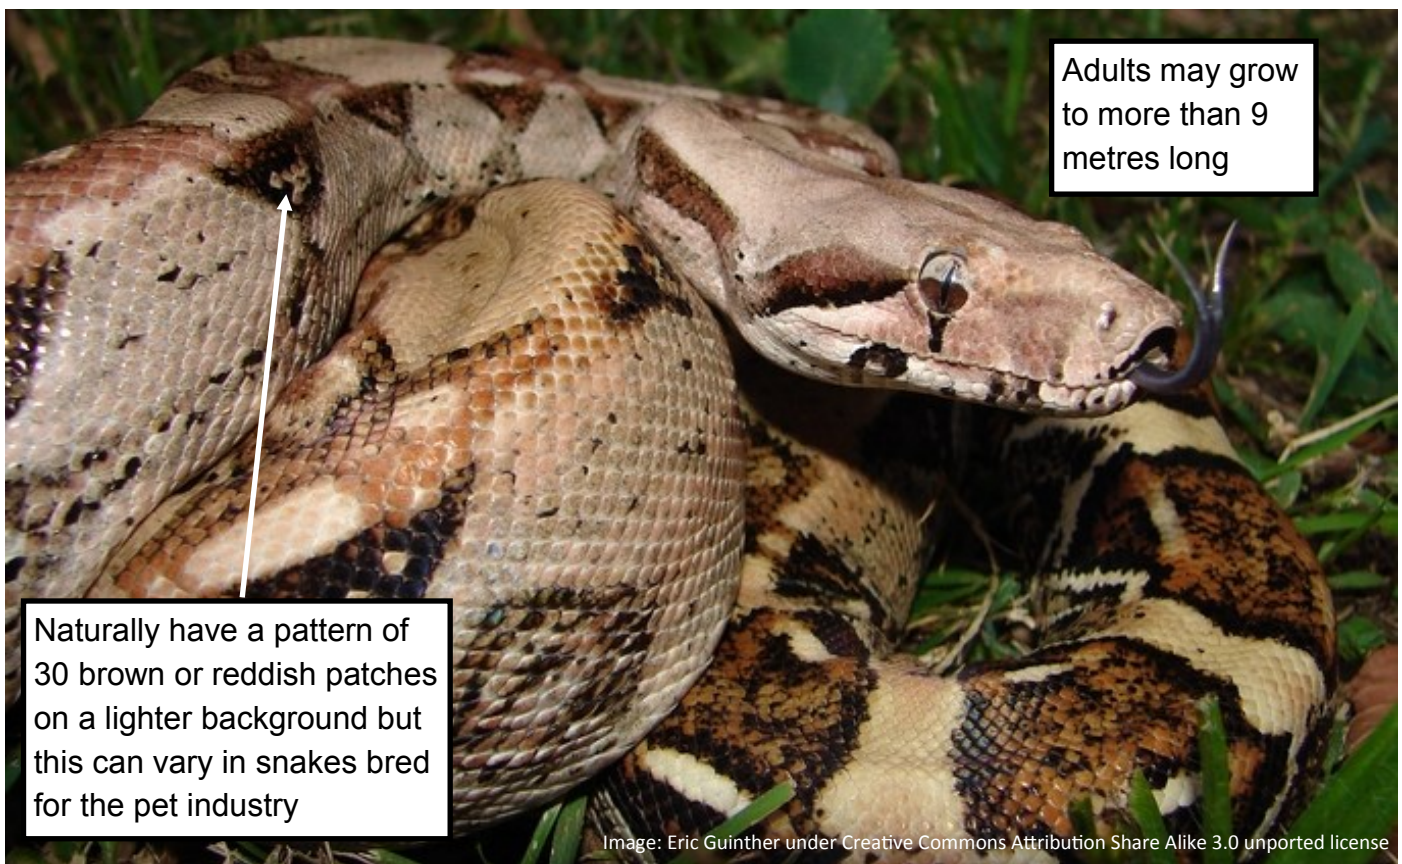

Boa constrictor imperator

What is it?

A large snake from Central and South America. Boa constrictor feeds on a variety of animals, posing a risk to small children, pets, small farm animals, and wildlife.

Suspected sightings should be reported immediately using the details provided at the bottom of this poster.

Where might I see it?

May be seen anywhere around buildings or in the forest - on the ground or in lower tree branches.

Please report any sightings of this species by calling:

1664 491 2075

[insert website address]

